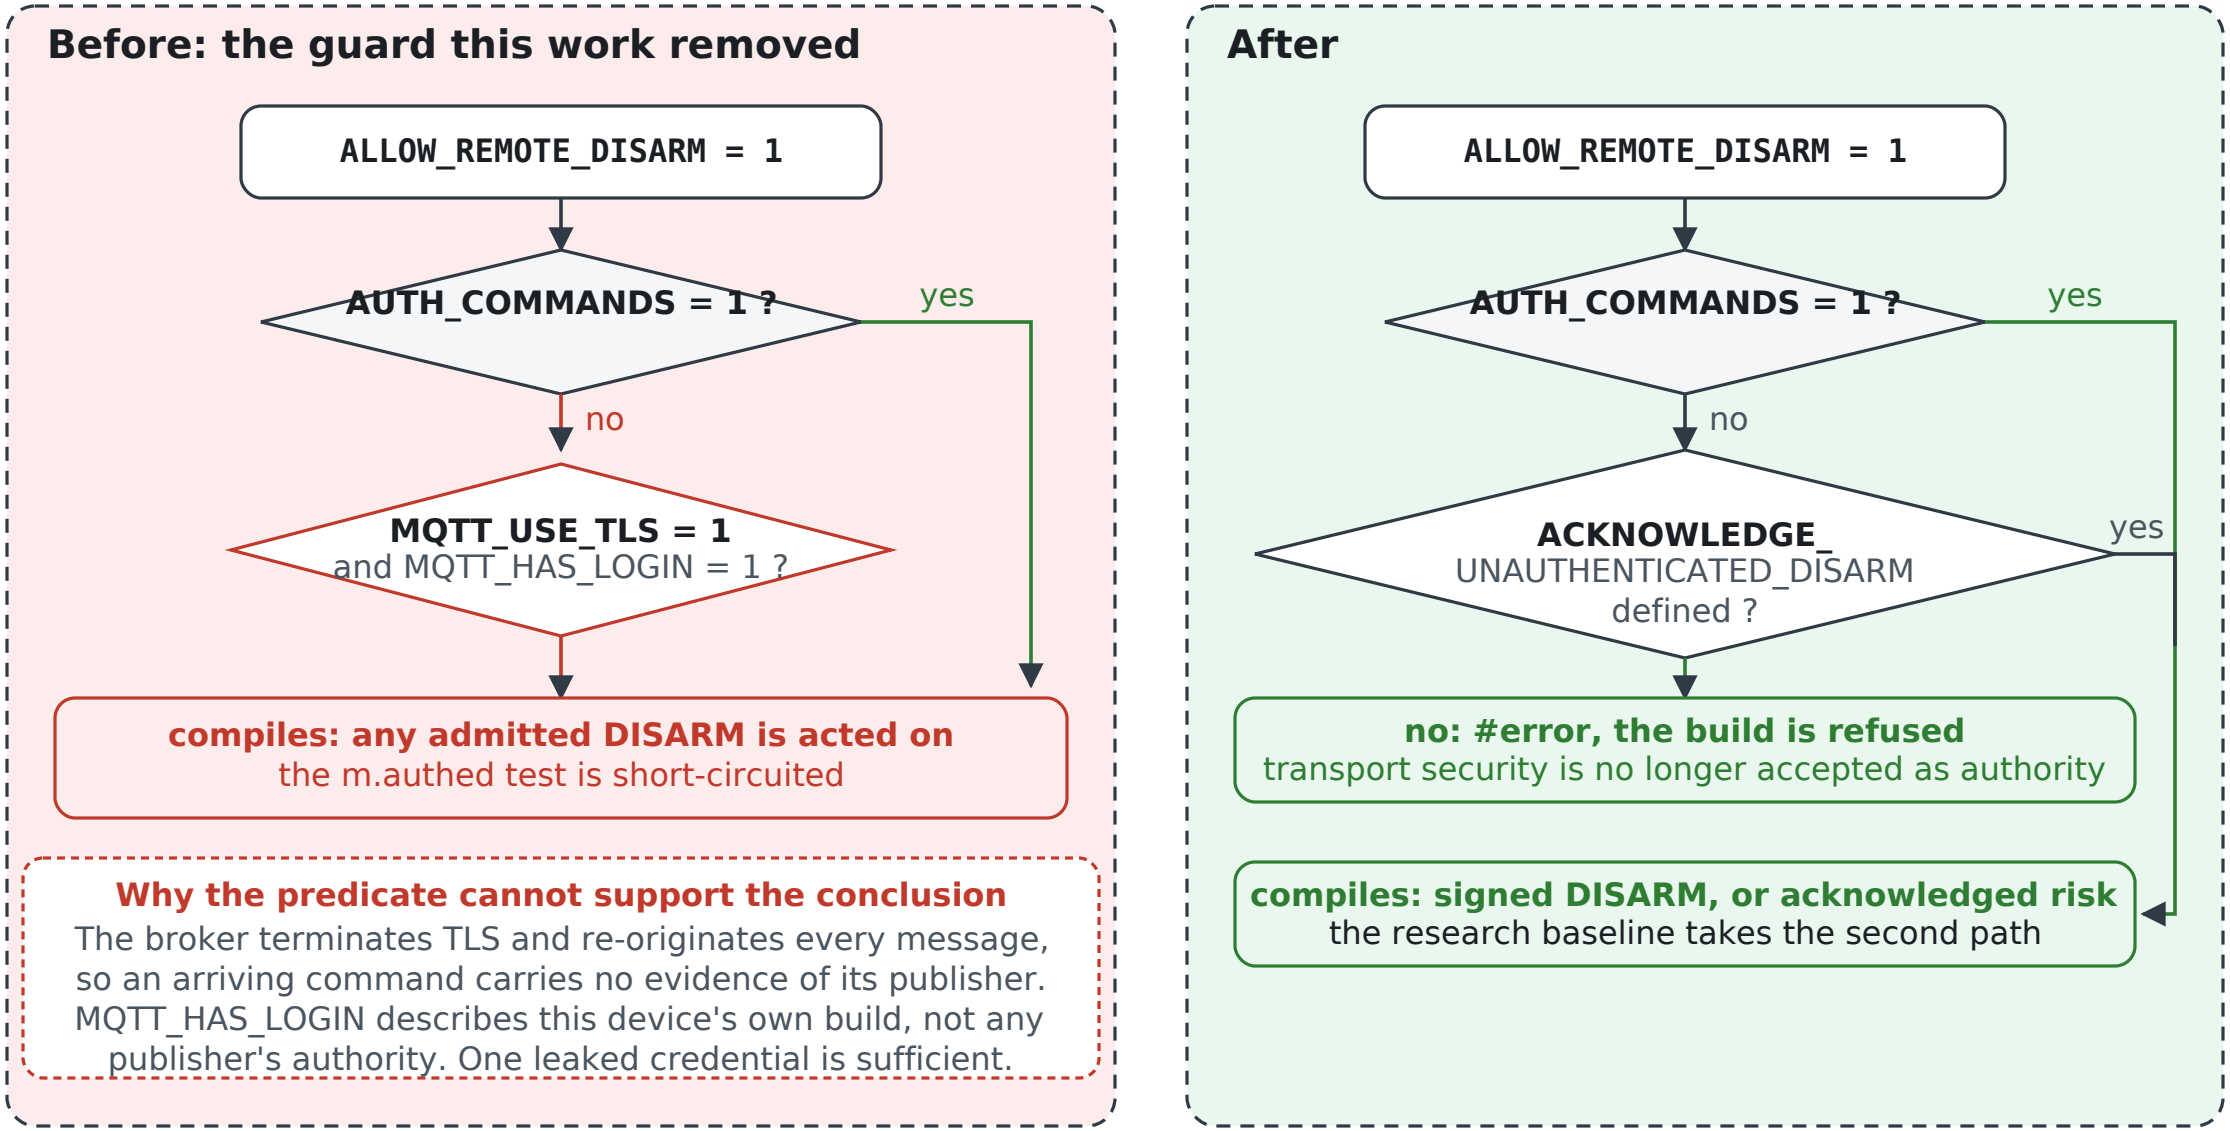
A build condition is a security argument. This one asserted that transport security plus a broker login implies publisher authority.



Red marks a build in which an unauthenticated DISARM can be acted on; green marks one in which it cannot.